

15. Please attach a typewritten paragraph or more commenting on your academic experience in college as well as on any work or activities in which you are involved. Be sure to include any information you think the Committee should know and explain why you believe you should be awarded a Duncan-Jenkins scholarship. The Committee considers this response of great importance and expects that you will take care with spelling, grammar, and organization.

16. Please attach a copy of your college transcript. Be sure it includes your grades for this past fall semester or your last semester completed. Your application cannot be considered without an up-to-date transcript.

17. If it is possible, it would be to your advantage to include a letter of recommendation from someone who knows your work at college.
